

WINTER SPORTS IN HAKUBA

The Hakuba Valley has gained worldwide notoriety thanks to the 1998 Winter Olympics. The region enjoys an annual snowfall of about 11 meters of what is considered one of the highest quality powdery snow in the country. Some of the Olympic facilities are still in use today, such as the Hakuba Ski Jumping Stadium. The small Hakuba Olympic Village Memorial Hall Museum located near the ski jump is also popular with visitors.
