

Izu Archipelago: Exotic Islands in your own back yard. Hachijo-Jima

Day 1: Tokyo / Hachijo-Jima

Depart from Tokyo for Shikinejima by ferry in the evening.

Stay the night on board and arrival at the island the next morning.

Visits and meals at your convenience.

Hachijo-Jima Island has popular diving spots as well as superb hiking trails on Mt. Hachijo-Fuji, the highest peak in the Izu Archipelago. The temperate subtropical climate supports a wide variety of local flora and fauna, and the volcanic terrain creates magnificent views combining lush meadows and rugged mountains overlooking the crystal-clear ocean.*

Option: Car rental

Leave your luggage at the accommodation and go visit the island.

Night at your accommodation (dinner as an option)

Visit Suggestions:

- Mt. Hachijo-Fuji Hike
- Nanpara Senjojiki
Stretching along the coast near the port of Yaene, Nanpara Senjojiki is a huge black plateau formed of volcanic lava from a past eruption of Mount Hachijo-Fuji.
- Osato no Tama-ishigaki
The Osato district retains many traditional stone walls created by stacking paving stones and presents a unique landscape.
- Uramigataki
A hiking trail that winds its way behind a waterfall and where you can find many local plants such as the hego leaf.
- Nago Observatory
- Miharashi-no-yu (Overlook Hotsprings), Sueyoshi Hot Springs
As its name indicates, the onsen offers stunning views of the Pacific Ocean from its baths.
