

Himeji - 2 Days
Cherry Blossoms in early April

Himeji is not only the most beautiful castle in Japan but also the site of one of the most beautiful cherry blossoms in the country. A single glance takes in the castle, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the hundreds of sakuras in full bloom that surround it.

Day 1: Tokyo / Himeji

Depart for Himeji by Shinkansen at 9:00am. (duration: about 3h40).

Visits and meals at your convenience.

The fortress of Himeji, or castle of the "White Heron", is one of the oldest military works in medieval Japan. A cultural treasure, it was built in the 14th century and was often used as a setting for films, notably those of director Akira Kurosawa.

Day 2: Himeji/ Tokyo

Breakfast at the hotel.

Visits and meals at your convenience.

Visit Suggestions:

- Shoshazan Engyoji Temple

Shoshazan Engyoji Temple was built in 966 on the northern edge of Himeji city. It is located on Mount Shosha, a small mountain that rises 371 meters above sea level. The beauty of the totally pristine environment devoid of modern structures has made Mount Shosha a recurring spot for films (The Last Samurai) and television shoots.
